Sl. No 1. CONSTITUTIONAL DAY CELEBRATIONS

India's constitution is one of the longest constitutions in the world. Dr.B.R Ambedkar composed it by referring nearly 17 constitutions of different countries. The Constitution of India is the supreme law of India. The document lays down the framework that demarcates fundamental political code, structure, procedures, powers, and duties of government institutions and sets out fundamental rights, directive principles, and the duties of citizens. It is the longest written national constitution in the world. Competitions were conducted on Essay writing, elocution, quiz and debate. Prizes were distributed to students.

- ❖ Department of English celebrated National Constitutional Day on 26th November 2021. The theme of Justice Liberty Equality and Fraternity was discussed and the role of every citizen was highlighted.
- ❖ Department of English celebrated Constitution Day on 26th Nov, 2022 at E-Classroom. Nearly 75 students participated in the event and recited the Preamble of Constitution. Dr. G. Srilatha, Head of the department, Department of English addressed the student community and spoke about the uniqueness of Indian Constitution.

Sl.No 2. INDEPENDENCE DAY AND SL.NO.3 REPUBLIC DAY:

To create awareness about the ancient , insightful history of our nation the sacrifices made to achieve freedom in India Independence Day and Republic Day were celebrated and triumphantly honored every consecutive year. Flag hoisting, Official March past parade and cultural activities are part of our celebrations.

Our students who is a cadet in NCC , Gurrala Bhavana studying 3rd Bsc MPC-A Roll no:201218 took part in the march past held in Republic Day Celebrations 2022 Parade at New Delhi.

SL. NO. 4. NCC SEVA DAY

NCC SEVA DAY was organized by the department of the NCC on 11/12/2019. They visited old age home to serve the old people.

Sl.No 5.NAVAL DAY CELEBRATIONS:

Naval Day 2019 was observed on 04th December 2019 which signifies celebration honoring the naval forces and their contributions to national defense and maritime security. To demonstrate naval capabilities showcased ships, submarines, aircraft, and other military hardware, along with speeches by military and government officials. Students recognized the bravery and dedication of sailors and other naval personnel.

Sl.No 6. HUMAN RIGHTS DAY: The ethical and human values were additionally edified to the students by conducting program on International Human Rights day by the Department of Computer Science. Awareness on human values ,rights ,duties part of constitutional obligations is vital to build a healthy society by protecting their rights when necessary .As said by one of the Justice in his speech that Rights and duties are interlinked. While rights without duties lead to arrogance, duties without rights lead to slavery. Hence, there is a need to maintain balance between rights and duties, he stressed. So our institution took the lead role to let our students and staff be aware and discharge their responsibilities and duties to build a better nation by maintaining active and vivify Naval ,NCC and NSS teams and organizing activities by the various departments which stimulates the instinct of patriotism and responsibility.

- ❖ Awareness program on Drug Addiction on 11/10/2021
- ❖ Awareness Program on Drug Addiction on 30/01/2023

Sl.No 9. NOBEL PRIZE DAY:

Individuals who prioritize ethical behavior are more likely to build strong, healthy relationships based on mutual respect, trust, and honesty. They are also more likely to make decisions thinking beyond themselves, considering the feelings and well-being of others. Thus, events not only of literary importance but also of National significance like constitution day and Nobel Prize day were celebrated. These events were conducted to encourage empathy, compassion, and altruism, bridging societal divides and promoting a spirit of cooperation. Through ethical conduct, conflicts can be resolved amicably, and communities can work together toward common goals, transcending individual interests for the collective good. Students also learn to be responsible citizens in their growing years in the college.
